READ BEFORE BOOKING

- ATTENTION NEW AND RETURNING CLIENTS PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU ARE READING THE POLICIES PRIOR TO BOOKING
- YOU MUST BE AT LEAST 18 YEARS OLD TO BOOK AN APPOINTMENT UNLESS ACCOMPANIED BY A PARENT/GUARDIAN! NO EXCEPTIONS!!
- If you are a student please have your student ID present at your appointment. Your student ID must be CURRENT. The student discount applies to those in undergrad only.
- If you are plus size please make sure you're selecting the PLUS SIZE option when booking unless we have discussed otherwise. This does not apply to students.
- When you arrive please come inside the building to suite 112. Knock and wait by the door. When I am ready for you I will let you know.
- Please do not text to say you have arrived. Chances are I am probably waxing a client and it is hard to stop mid wax and text back. If you need to speak with me please call me 205-523-2606
- I do not charge a late fee but please keep in mind that if you are more than seven minutes late you may have to be squeezed in if I am booked back to back that day. If you choose not to wait and be squeezed in you may be charged the $10 cancellation fee.
- If you cancel your appointment after 10pm the night before your service then you will be required to pay a $10 cancellation fee. The fee may be waived ONCE depending on the circumstance. If the appointment is rescheduled the same day then the $10 will go towards your total for your next visit (This is only allowed TWICE) Refusal to pay may result in your full name being posted to the website and being banned from booking any future appointments. By booking you are agreeing to my cancellation policy and terms.
- You CANNOT cancel an appointment via EMAIL. The proper way to cancel an appointment is through text, the booking site, or by phone call.
- Random wax strips that are not included with the service(s) you booked ARE an additional charge. If you have a random patch of hair that you want removed please add on "random wax strip".
- If you are a sweater please do not overdress as this will cause excessive sweating. Wax does not stick to moisture.

Please note that sometimes I am quiet when waxing especially when I am booked back to back as I am focusing on completing services in a timely manner. This may make some people uncomfortable. If you need to be entertained or distracted you may have your phone during your wax or I have a TV and you are more than welcome to request your favorite show or tunes :) I look forward to seeing you soon xoxo
